The annual railroad ball, May 1, was a great success. The ball was well decorated under the directed of W. H. Parker. Music was furnished by Mrs. Brook's orchestra, with Carl C. Lund, cellist, and they gave a fine concert before the dancing began. Almost 50 couples participated in the grand march, led by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Paige, and quite a number of others came in later. Refreshments were served in the ball by the Universalist Ladies' Aid Society, and in general a fine time was enjoyed.

The Caledonia County Christian En deavor Convention was held in the Congregational church at Lyndonville, Friday. The session was a very successful one and about 100 were present from the surrounding towns and villages. The meeting opened at 10.30 with Rev. O. E Hardy of East Burke presiding. After the devotional excercises, which were led by Mr. Hardy, five minute addresses were given by the presidents of each society, on the theme, "What I most De-sire to see Brought About in my Society." It was expressed by some of the presidents that we aim at definite results and definite things, no matter how small they may be. We should make i our chief aim to work together, give the leaders of the meeting more assistance, begin our meetings promptly, and aim to get large numbers. At the close of these addresses a delicious dinner was served by the young ladies of the local society, in the vestry of the church. Devotional excercises were held at 1 30 led by Rev. E. T. French of Lyndonville, followed with interesting addresses by Rev. J. W. Hird of Waterford, who gave an instructive talk on "How we got our Bible." Rev. E. E. Grant of East St. Johnsbury tollowed with equally as interesting an address on "How to Use It for Devotional Purposes," giving his listeners instructive thoughts as to what the bible is intended for and how to treat the book, Rev. A. S. Gilbert of Pass umpsic dwelt on the subject "How to Use the Bible for Study," He said we Stevens. His loss will be under $500 must study the book from the author's view, therefore we must look from God's point. It is a book that is absolutely ight and must not be criticized. Secretary Von Ogden Vogt, of the International Christian Endeavor Union was the next speaker. Although his time was limited be gave a short, but nteresting address on the different Christian Endeavor societies in general, saying that there was great progress in Brazil and India. Song services are held in the streets and the meetings are largely attended. The International Christian Endeavor society aim for 1,-000,000 new members this year and plan for a great awakening in the Christian Endeavor work. At the close of his address general questions were asked, which were answered by Secretary Vogt The business meeting which followed was short and matters relative to more practical and effective working of the Union are to be considered at an execuive meeting to be held in the near future. Mention was made of the Conference to be held at Lake George, July 20 to 29. The matter is left in the hands of the county president, C. ## ANOTHER SUNDAY FIRE. Big Damage by Water and Smoke in the Merchants Bank Block. Just before 4 o'clock Sunday morning Mrs. Lena Arnold, who lives in one of the upper stories of the Merchants Bank block discovered the building on fire and quickly aroused Chief of Police Noves, who has rooms on the third floor. The other tenants were immediately notified and the alarm given. The firemen responded promptly to the call and great credit is due them for their persistent and beroic work. Within a short time the fire was under control, though it was necessary to chop many holes in the walls as the fire was almost entirely confined to the partitions. For four hours three streams of water were poured into the building and the domage by water About 15 friends were present and the tell heaviest on Asselin Brothers the social hour passed all too quickly.
